

OrthoPediatrics Corp. Announces Sponsorship of 2018 EPOS Meeting and Lunch Symposium

April 9, 2018

WARSAW, Ind., April 09, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- OrthoPediatrics Corp. (NASDAQ:KIDS), a company exclusively focused on advancing the field of pediatric orthopedics, today announced it will continue its Diamond sponsorship for the 37th Annual European Paediatric Orthopaedic Society (EPOS) meeting, which will take place April 11 – 14 in Oslo, Norway. OrthoPediatrics has been a leading sponsor of the Society since the Company's inception.

At the meeting, OrthoPediatrics will also sponsor a lunch symposium titled "Management of Open Fractures in Children", featuring a panel of key opinion leaders from around the world. The panelists will discuss the most frequent types of fractures, guidelines for antibiotic use, evidence-based surgical treatment and the management of soft tissue injuries in open fractures in children. The panel will be moderated by Dr. Pierre Journeau, with additional discussion and case presentations by Drs. Annelie Weinberg, Manoj Ramachandran, and Manon Bachy.

OrthoPediatrics' President & CEO Mark Throdahl, commented, "We are pleased to continue our leading support of EPOS, one of the world's largest pediatric orthopedic scientific organizations. This society has remained steadfastly dedicated to elevating the quality of care for children with orthopedic conditions. OrthoPediatrics has shared this mission since our inception, and so we are proud to continue supporting the clinical education of pediatric surgeons as we work together to improve the lives of children with orthopedic conditions around the world."
