

OrthoPediatrics Corp. to Sponsor Two Medical Meetings in September 2020

September 9, 2020

WARSAW, Ind., Sept. 09, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- OrthoPediatrics Corp. ("OrthoPediatrics" or the "Company") (Nasdaq: KIDS), a company focused exclusively on advancing the field of pediatric orthopedics, today announced its continued support for the Scoliosis Research Society ("SRS"), including the Company's Gold Level sponsorship for the 55th Annual Meeting & Course taking place virtually on September 9-13. The Company will also continue its support as a Platinum Level Sponsor for the 74th Annual Meeting of the American Academy for Cerebral Palsy and Developmental Medicine ("AAPDM"), which will take place virtually on September 23-26.

In addition to its sponsorship, OrthoPediatrics will provide educational grants and scholarships for physicians to attend SRS. SRS meeting attendees are invited to join discussions featuring ApiFix on Sunday, September 13th. Additionally, OrthoPediatrics will provide scholarships, educational support, and a virtual exhibit for AAPDM showcasing the Company's products, and live chat sessions with surgeon customers and members of the OrthoPediatrics business teams.

OrthoPediatrics' President, David Bailey, stated, "As a leader in the pediatric orthopedic space, it is part of our duty to help physicians access the necessary resources to improve the care of children with orthopedic conditions. We are pleased to partner with organizations that align with our mission and are grateful for the opportunities to train surgeons with our best-in-class solutions and help shape the future of the industry. It is encouraging to see the educational courses continuing to take place with the virtual formats. We are proud of our team's ability to quickly adapt and provide meaningful engagements for eager surgeons from all over the world."
