

OrthoPediatrics Corp. to Host Educational and Networking Events at 20th Annual International Pediatric Orthopaedic Symposium (IPOS)

Dec 02, 2024

Continues IPOS Corporate Partnership as Emerald-Level Sponsor

WARSAW, Ind., Dec. 02, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- OrthoPediatrics Corp. ("OrthoPediatrics" or the "Company") (Nasdaq: KIDS), a company focused exclusively on advancing the field of pediatric orthopedics, today announced plans to host educational and networking events at IPOS and its continued support of the event as an Emerald-Level sponsor. IPOS, a branch of the Pediatric Orthopedic Society of North America (POSNA), is a leading educational meeting for pediatric orthopedic surgeons. Over 500 pediatric orthopedic surgeons are registered to attend the meeting from December 3-7, in Orlando, Florida.

"This year marks the 20th Annual IPOS meeting, and I couldn't be prouder of our partnership with this surgical society, and our participation in this meeting," said David Bailey, President and CEO of OrthoPediatrics. "IPOS is a great educational opportunity for early career surgeons, and our team is excited to connect with customers and share hands-on learning experiences with our new and innovative products. I'm especially excited to introduce our new Enabling Technology division as well as highlight all the great work we are doing in non-operative care through OPSB Specialty Bracing."

In addition to the exhibition booths (#1 - 3), wherein the Company will highlight their full suite of products, and feature its new Enabling Technology division with 7D, 3-D Side and the new Specialty Bracing division (OPSB), the Company is hosting several educational experiences for surgeons and other allied health professionals.
