

OrthoPediatrics Corp. Continued Double-Diamond Support of International Pediatric Orthopaedic Symposium (IPOS)

December 13, 2021

WARSAW, Ind., Dec. 13, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- OrthoPediatrics Corp. (NASDAQ: KIDS), a company focused exclusively on advancing the field of pediatric orthopedics, announced its continued support as a Double-Diamond sponsor of the International Pediatric Orthopaedic Symposium (IPOS), which took place December 7 – 11 in Orlando, Florida. Over 400 pediatric orthopedic surgeons attended the meeting. IPOS, a branch of the Pediatric Orthopedic Society of North America (POSNA), is a leading educational meeting for pediatric orthopedic surgeons.

David Bailey, President and CEO of OrthoPediatrics, commented, "It was great to be back in Orlando for the 17th Annual IPOS meeting! We are fortunate to be able to re-connect with our surgeon customers through in-person meetings. It is evident that there is no substitute for the hands-on learning and fellowship we experienced together this past week in Florida. Our continued strong partnership with POSNA is something I am particularly proud of, and we are excited to continue advancing the field of pediatric orthopedic surgery together."

The meeting started with an industry-sponsored pre-course led by four faculty surgeons, giving surgical residents and fellows tips and tricks to improve their surgical skills. Additionally, the Company hosted four workshop sessions. Covered topics included techniques for pediatric deformity correction, orthopedic trauma, non-fusion options for scoliosis and the treatment of neuromuscular scoliosis.

The Company also highlighted its growing portfolio of pediatric-specific technology at its exhibit booth – featuring ApiFix and 7D Flash Intraoperative Navigation. OrthoPediatrics is the exclusive distributor of the 7D technology in children's hospitals in the U.S. through a unique partnership with SeaSpine.
